Course Code and Sequence

The first four alphabets of the course code indicate the subject (e.g. BIOL stands for Biology). Normally, undergraduate courses are coded 1000 to 4999 and postgraduate courses, 5000 to 9999.

Credit Transfer

Credits accepted for transfer are shown as number of units recognized but not included in GPA calculations.

Period of Study and Unit Requirements

The normative study period of undergraduate programmes is four years except for certain programmes that specify otherwise in their study schemes. Students admitted to study programmes with a normative study period of four years shall complete at least 123 units of courses, or other units as prescribed in the study scheme of each programme, before graduation. Students admitted to study programmes with normative study period other than four years or with qualifications eligible for advanced standing and/or unit exemptions shall complete the units of courses and other requirements as prescribed in the study scheme of each programme. MB ChB programme has its specific study period and requirements for . Undergraduate students admitted in 2012-13 and before followed different normative study periods and unit requirements as specified in the Student Handbook of their admission year.
